Hot damn! Brickell's three upcoming residential towers: mybrickell, 1100 Millecento, and BrickellHouse, are almost entirely sold out. Only 20 units remain among the three, or a measly 2.1%. BrickellHouse and mybrickell have both broke ground, and mybrickell has actually built a few stories, but 1100 Millecento won't even scratch the dirt until October. And what about the massive Brickell CitiCentre, also under construction? Well, they haven't started sales yet.

· 1100 Millecento, BrickellHouse, mybrickell are on the brink of selling out.
